Did You Know? Let us all as a church family give thanks and praise to our Lord and Savior for His wonderful financial provision to us in 2021. We are so blessed! We begin the last half of our 21-22 fiscal year positioned to pursue opportunities the Lord makes available. Our Thanksgiving offering was over twice what was needed to fund the stated ministry priorities, with the remaining portion going to Global Ministry as authorized by the Elders. Please see the details relative to budget in the financial section above. If at any time you have questions regarding finances, our Business Manager Dave Hostetter will be happy to answer them for you. "...for God loves a cheerful giver," 2 Corinthians 9:7.

When in Doubt
John 6:60-69 (p. 891)

What do we do when doubts creep in? Can God handle them? What if they make us feel guilty? What if they cause us to question our faith? Can I doubt and believe at the same time? We will answer all these questions and more over the next four weeks in our series entitled "When in Doubt".

Doubt vs. Unbelief

When in Doubt?

Is it fair?

Is it worth it?

Is it true?
