Did You Know? Benevolence assistance is available to help members, regular attenders and others who are experiencing temporary financial challenges. Jesus encourages us to help one another and the early church made provision to do that effectively. We can assist with housing, transportation or medical-related expenses, among others. Applicants may be asked to meet with a financial counselor to review their financial situation. If you know of individuals or families who would qualify, please notify Angie Glick at aglick@calvarychurch.org and she will begin the process.

When in Doubt

Job (p. 417)

As our series concludes today, we will look to the story of Job for an invitation to trust God even when we are suffering and experiencing doubt.

Job's Story (Job 1-2)

Job and His Friends (Job 3-37)

God's Response (Job 38-41)

Job's Humility and Trust (Job 42)

Reflection and Action:

How can we be even better friends to those who are suffering or experiencing doubt?

What is one truth about God you will cling to when you are in doubt?
