Did You Know? We again want to thank you, Calvary Church family, for your consistent, generous stewardship of all that the Lord entrusts to us as His children. God is calling us to walk in humility as we remember that all we have comes from Him. There is nothing we can offer to God that isn't already His. The Calvary Church leadership and finance team strive to be Biblical stewards of your tithes and gifts. Please pray for wisdom as we enter into the 2022-23 budget process. Thank you.

Come to Me
Matthew 11:28-30 (p. 816)

We know how to accept an invitation to an event, party or gathering. But do we know what it means to respond to Jesus' invitation to come to him? Over the next 5 weeks, we will gain a better understanding of why and how we should accept His invitation to come.

Why Should I Come?

Jesus' Heart: Gentle and Lowly

My Heart: Labored and Heavy Laden

How Do I Come?

Take My Yoke

Learn From Me

Reflection and Action:

What two words would you use to describe the heart of Jesus?

What is one way you regularly respond to Jesus' invitation to come to Him?
