MythBusters

Bad Things Won't Happen – John 11 (p. 897)

There are commonly held beliefs about the Bible, God, Jesus and Christianity that are just not true. Today, this new series begins as we bust the myth that bad things won't happen to me if I believe in Jesus.

Bad Things Won't Happen

Bad Things Happen (John 11)

Now a certain man was ill (11:1)

Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus (11:5)

Lazarus has died (11:14)

Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. (11:21)

I AM the resurrection and the life . . . (11:25)

Jesus wept (11:35)

Many who had come and had seen what he did, believed in him (11:45)

WELCOME! Thanks for joining us today!

We hope you find friendly people, an inspiring service, and real-life issues discussed from the Bible in ways you can understand and apply. If you're a guest, we'd love to meet you at the Welcome Gathering (near east lobby entrance, immediately following the service). Let us know if we can serve you. We hope to see you again!

Current Series:

MYTHBUSTERS

Is everything you believe about God and the Bible true?

Has a friend, Sunday-school teacher, devotional, social-media post or even a sermon introduced you to assumptions or truisms which may be false? At first, these myths seem plausible and even reputable. They can take on a life of their own and are difficult to refute. But if believed, the consequences can be devastating. Let's rightly handle the Word of truth so we may have certainty about what we believe. Join us as we BUST the most widely disseminated myths of the day—our faith just may depend on it.
