Follow Me!

Mark 10:1-31 (p. 845)

As Jesus continues to develop what it means to be one of His followers, He teaches principles about divorce, children and money. But on a deeper level He is reorienting the priorities of our heart.

Divorce (10:1-12)

“Is it lawful to divorce?”

“What God has joined together . . .”

Children (10:13-16)

The disciples hindered them from bringing the children

“Receive the kingdom like a child.”

Money (10:17-31)

“What must I do to inherit eternal life?”

“Go, sell everything, give and follow me.”

“For all things are possible with God.”
