

On the Inside

I'm Broken - John 21:1-22

Peter experienced amazing highs and devastating lows during his time with Jesus. But in one moment, his denial of Christ by a charcoal fire the night before the crucifixion left Peter broken and devastated. Jesus' gracious restoration of Peter after the resurrection gives hope to us all.

Peter's Brokenness (Luke 22)

"I do not know him and he went out and wept bitterly."

Jesus' Compassion (John 21)

"Jesus revealed himself to the disciples" (21:1, 14)

"Do you love me? Feed my sheep." (21:15-19)

"You follow me." (21:22)

For Discussion:

What are you learning through your brokenness?

How are you graciously engaging with others who are struggling on the inside?
