

At the Cross

The Exchange at the Cross – Colossians 2:13-14, Mark 15:6-15

When you see an image of a cross, what thoughts come to mind? As we begin this new series today, we will understand the exchange that took place on the cross and what it means for us all.

The Truth (Colossians 2:13-14)

Dead in your trespasses

Made alive together with Him

By nailing the debt to the cross

The Exchange (Mark 15:6-15)

Barabbas: Guilty of Murder

Jesus: “I have found in Him no guilt”

Reflection and Action:

Do you understand the legal exchange that took place at the cross?

We are all Barabbas. The innocent exchanged for the guilty.
