

Seeing God Through the Psalms

Psalm 145 – p. 524

The Psalmist invites us to look, notice, recognize, observe and behold God through the valleys and mountaintops of everyday life. David helps us see God, our King, clearly and personally through his creatively written Psalm of praise.

Pouring Forth Praise (1-7)

I Will . . . (1, 2, 5, 6)

Extol, bless, praise, commend, declare, meditate, speak, pour forth, sing (1-7)

One generation to another (4)

Meditate and Declare (5-6)

Beholding the King and His Kingdom (8-13)

The King is . . . (8-9)

The LORD

Gracious and Merciful

Slow to Anger and Abounding in Steadfast Love

His Kingdom is . . . (10-13)

Glorious and Everlasting

Looking to the God Who Restores and Provides (14-21)

Upholds, raises up, satisfies, fulfills, hears, preserves (14-20)

My mouth will speak (21)
