Top 10 IDEAS to make the day special for Dad!

Sometimes a gift for Dad that requires creativity and effort is so much more meaningful than anything you could buy!

1. Take Super Dad to the Super Bowl

Let him pick a sports movie or replay of a classic football game and watch it with him!

Then dish out a "super" bowl of his favorite ice cream.

2. Grass Attack!

When he is not home, go cut the grass and surprise him when he gets home with a manicured lawn.

3. Take a Hike

Find a local trail and go for a hike! For extra credit, make a snack mix and take a bottle of water and surprise him with it on the way.

4. Grill's Open!

Find out his favorite meat and cook it on the grill. Bonus points for preparing his favorite side dish.

5. Backyard Olympics

Pull out the yard games and hold a tournament and give Dad a BEST DAD EVER homemade medal at the end (or his favorite candy bar.)

6. Buck the Trend

Everyone gets a dollar (ok, $1.06 with tax) and go to a local dollar store and everyone buy one thing for Dad. Give them to him and let him know why you bought that particular item for him!

7. D.E.A.

Pick 3 restaurants. Go to the first one and have an appetizer, the second one for the main meal, and the last one for dessert. At each eating place, tell him what favorite things you like to do with him. (Fast food is acceptable on Dad's Eating Activity.)

8. Dandy Candy

Buy five candy bars and make a story up about your Dad using the candy names.

9. Coffee for two, or three, or four...

Take Dad to a coffee shop, buy him a cup of coffee and tell him what makes him special.

10. Post-it Party

Write twenty or so great things about your Dad on post-its and place them around the house. Tell you Dad how many you placed and have him find them.
