

Light and Life

1 John 1:3

The proclamation of the birth of Jesus is an invitation to come to Him. Shepherds and Wise Men were the first to be invited. Jesus' ministry was characterized by the repeated invitation to come. The invitation still stands today. How will we respond?

Fellowship with God and Others

Proclaimed to You

How will you accept His invitation to come to Him this week?

Who do you know that needs an invitation?