

Follow Me!

Mark 10:32-52 – p. 846

Today we come to the end of the middle section Mark and the thematic verse for the entire Gospel (v.45). Jesus predicts his death for a third time, His disciples continue to jockey for position in the kingdom, and Jesus graciously restores the sight of a blind beggar.

Jesus Predicts His Death . . . *Again (10:32-34)

“I will be condemned and delivered”

The Disciples Lack Understanding . . . *Again (10:35-41)

“Do whatever we ask”

Jesus Corrects Their Priorities . . . *Again (10:42-45)

“You know that . . . but it shall not be so . . . “

“not to be served but to serve”

“to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Jesus Opens a Blind Man’s Eyes . . . *Again (10:46-52)

“Have mercy on me!”

“He followed him”
