

In the Midst

Psalm 42-43

Today, I want to share one final “in the midst” message. It is not necessarily about our current situation, but is applicable anytime we are “in the midst,” especially when we are feeling hopeless, discouraged or depressed. The psalmist helps us to express ourselves when the darkness sets in, but also points us towards the light, no matter how far off it may seem.

A Conflicted Reality - 42:6-11

An Expected Rescue - 43:1-5

*For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of living water,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.*
