

Follow Me!

Mark 14:1-52

It is the week of Jesus' crucifixion. He triumphantly entered Jerusalem, cleared the temple, engaged with religious leaders and taught his disciples. Mark will now take us through Jesus' final hours. His disciples begin to unravel. One betrays, another will deny, and the rest abandon him. But Jesus continues to be resolved, determined and selfless. His eyes fixed on the cross.

Hatred vs. Devotion (14:1-11)

"arrest him by stealth and kill him" (1)

"she has done a beautiful thing" (6)

"he sought an opportunity to betray him" (11)

Old vs. New (14:12-25)

"and they prepared the Passover" (16)

"This is my blood of the covenant" (24)

Suffering Yet Determined (14:26-42)

"my soul is very sorrowful" (34)

"yet not my will but yours be done" (36)

Unraveled vs. Resolved (14:43-52)

"the betrayer had given them a sign" (44)

"And they all left him and fled" (50)

"But let the Scriptures be fulfilled." (49)
