

Ripple Effect: Disciples Making Disciples
The Context of Disciple-making (1 Peter 4:7-11)

A disciple is committed to the life, teaching, and mission of Jesus, and they influence others to do the same. But how do we do disciple-making? What should our core context be? And how can we leverage what God has given us to create eternal ripple effects?

Disciple-making is Relationship-Focused:

Am I Cultivating Intentional Relationships for Growth?

“One-Anothers”

Disciple-making is Hospitality-Driven:

“Show Hospitality to One Another without Grumbling” (4:9)

What does biblical hospitality look like?

Pray (4:7)

Love (4:8)

Live (4:9)

Serve (4:10-11)

Reflection and Action:

Books to Read: “Art of Neighboring” & “The Gospel Comes With a Housekey”

What are some practical ways I can show hospitality to create ripple effects for the gospel?