

Follow Me!

Mark 1:21-45 – p. 836

In the first 20 verses, Mark declared Jesus to be the Christ and the Son of God, rooted his coming in the Old Testament Scriptures, described his preparation for ministry through his baptism and temptation, revealed the content of his message and teaching, and invited us to follow Him as he introduced us to His first disciples. Today, Mark puts Jesus authority and compassion on display for all to see.

At the Synagogue in Capernaum (1:21-28)

Authority in Teaching

Authority in Casting Out a Demon

At the House of Simon and Andrew (1:29-34)

Authority in Healing

Compassion in Healing

A Desolate Place Early in the Morning (1:35-39)

Dependent in Prayer

Focused on His Mission

A Healing in Galilee (1:40-45)

Moved with Pity