

No Matter What

I Thank My God – Philippians 1:3-11

After laying out the theme of his letter to the Philippians in his initial greeting, Paul allows us to listen in on his prayer for them that abounds with gratitude, joy, affection, longing and love. Let's be challenged to do the same . . . No Matter What!

I Thank My God . . . (v. 3-7)

And it is my prayer . . . (v. 8-11)

For Discussion and Action:

How will your prayer life be impacted by today's passage?

Is there one way you would like your love to abound more and more?
