

The Life of David

Have Mercy on Me, O God – 2 Samuel 12, Psalm 51 & 32

After David's sin against Bathsheba and Uriah, God sends Nathan to confront him. Nathan uses a parable to help David see the devastation his sin has caused. David's heartfelt confession is preserved for us in Psalm 51. It reminds us how much we all need the Lord's mercy and forgiveness.

David's Sin (2 Samuel 11)

Nathan's Rebuke (2 Samuel 12)

David's Confession (Psalm 51)

God's Forgiveness (Psalm 32)

Reflection and Action:

How are you engaged with God's Word personally and collectively?

Do you have both a Nathan and a Jonathan in your life?